In Race to Determine 3rd American Entrant in International

NINE AERONAUTS READY

To Leave St. Louis Prepared for Long Flight—Each Competing Country En- titled to Three Entrants for James Gordon Bennett Cup.

(Associated Press Telegram)
St. Louis, July 11.—Nine balloons will sail from here late this afternoon in the national elimination race to determine the third American entrant for the international race that will start from Kansas City next October. The international race is for the James Gordon Bennett cup and each competing country is entitled to three entrants.

The first two American entrants are the men who got first and second place in the last international race—H. R. Upson of Akron, O., and H. E. Honeywell of St. Louis. The third entrant will be the aeronaut who makes the longest flight in an air line in the race today.

Specially prepared gas is to be pumped into the balloons. Each balloon has a capacity of 80,000 cubic feet, and the aeronauts will sail, equipped for a long flight. The record for American flights was made in 1910 by Allen R. Hawley, who flew from St. Louis to Lake Tehotogama, Quebec, a distance of 1,172.9 miles. The world record was made by Maurice Renais of France in the international race of 1912. He flew 1,354 miles.

The order in which the balloons will sail was determined by lot yesterday afternoon, the coveted place going to the balloon "Goodyear" to be piloted by R. A. D. Preston, of Akron, O.

Following is the order in which the balloons will be released at intervals of five minutes, the first one starting at 5 o'clock:

1. "Goodyear," pilot, Warren Rasor, Brookline, O.; aide, Herbert Rasor, son of pilot.
2. "America III," pilot, Dr. Jerome Kingsbury, New York; aide, Clarence Wynne, Philadelphia.
3. "San Francisco, 1915," pilot, E. S. Cole, St. Louis; aide, R. E. Emerson, Springfield, Mo.
4. "Uncle Sam," pilot, Paul J. McCullough, St. Louis; aide, William H. Trefts, St. Louis.
5. "Miss Sofia," pilot, William Assman, St. Louis; no aide.
6. "Aero-Club of St. Louis," pilot, John Barry, St. Louis; aide, Albert von Hoffman, Jr., St. Louis.
7. "Kansas City, III," pilot, John Watts, Kansas City; aide, W. F. Constock, Kansas City.
8. "Pennsylvania," pilot, Arthur T. Atherholt, Philadelphia; aide, Phillip Sharples, Philadelphia.
9. "Goodyear," pilot, R. A. D. Preston, Akron, O.; aide, M. D. Tremell, Akron.

"BAKKY" STAYS FOR SAILOR MEN, DANIELS' ORDER

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, July 11.—General satisfaction was expressed today throughout naval circles when it became known that Secretary Daniels, contrary to expectations, had authorized the retention of popular brands of tobacco and articles which it had been rumored would be denied admission to the commissary stores.

The action of the secretary following the enforcement of his order abolishing the officers' wine mess, officially upset what had become a general belief among the enlisted men that they, too, would be denied certain proprietary articles which they had heretofore enjoyed.

SAVED YOUNG LAD FROM DROWNING

Raymond Buckner, aged 13, of Columbus, was saved from drowning in Buckeye Lake late Friday by Edwin Austin, 18, employed in the editorial department of the Ohio State Journal.

The Buckner lad, a son of Joseph Buckner, and two companions, were playing near a point where the water is very deep. Austin saw the boy struggling in the water while his young companions stood motionless. Austin plunged in and with assistance of Donald Ryan, dancer at the park, brought the boy to shore where he was revived.

PRODUCTION IS WAY AHEAD OF WHISKEY DEMAND

(Associated Press Telegram)
Louisville, Ky., July 11.—More than half the distillers of Kentucky, according to information made public yesterday, have agreed to join in a movement that will reduce the 1914 output 20,000,000 gallons on account of large stocks and overproduction during the past five years. Ohio, Indiana and Illinois distillers also are said to be taking like steps. Distillers are pointing out that decreased demand is not responsible for the proposed curtailment. They say statistics show consumption of whiskey has increased from 200,000,000 gallons to 35,000,000 gallons in the past four years and that in the same time production has jumped from 20,000,000 gallons to 46,000,000 gallons. "The idea," said one distiller, "is to let the demand catch up with the production."

STATEMENT ISSUED BY DELEGATES

(Associated Press Telegram)
Torreon, Mex., July 11.—At the Carranza-Villa conciliation conference at Torreon an effort to prevent General Carranza or any of the military leaders of the revolution from becoming candidates for the presidency or vice-presidency failed to be adopted according to a lengthy statement issued today.

The motion was made by the Villa delegates. A motion passed, however, demanding that the chief, as president of the conference, at the triumph of the revolution should call a convention composed of delegates representing the rebel army, every thousand soldiers to be represented by one delegate selected by a committee of military chiefs to be approved by the general of the division which would fix the date and arrange for the election.

A list of names was suggested to Carranza by the delegates from which he could select if he saw fit, a provisional cabinet or a consulting committee to act until the election of permanent officers.

Resolutions also were adopted condemning what was declared the activity of the clergy in assisting the Huerta government.

This followed a fight in which the Villa delegates attempted to eliminate any military leader, including Carranza, from presidential possibilities. Those recommended as suitable for the provisional cabinet were Iglesias Calderon, Luis Cabrera, Antonio Villareal, Miguel Silva, Manuel Bonilla, Alberto Pahl, Eduardo P. Ray, Ignacio Pasquiere, Miguel Diaz Lambaro, Jose Vasconcelos, Miguel Alessio Robles, and Frederico Gonzales Garza.

DOUBTFUL IF CONFERENCE WILL OCCUR

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, July 11.—Word from Carranza, constitutionalist leader over the proposal that he send delegates to an informal peace conference with his enemy's envoys, still was awaited today by administration officials and the South American mediators. With the revolutionary campaign against Mexico City nearing a crisis, and the report that most of the constitutionalist military leaders had advised against the party, members of Carranza's junta here admitted that their hopes for a conference were upset.

President Wilson and members of his cabinet today maintained their silence over the situation. It generally was believed the administration would withhold intimations of its future policy in Mexico until the constitutionalist leader definitely had outlined his attitude over the peace parley.

The officials, it is said, also promised to promote the girl, whose name has been withheld.

DISASTER BLAMED ON STORSTAD

Commission Finds Collier Responsible For Sink- ing of Empress

OVER 1,000 LIVES LOST

On May 29 When Ship Sunk In the St. Lawrence Dur- ing Fog, Change of Course Ordered by Officers of Storstad Unwarranted.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Quebec, July 11.—The collier Storstad is held to blame for the Empress of Ireland disaster, in the findings of the wreck commission handed down today. The commission holds that the disaster was due to the Storstad's change of course ordered by the third officer without instructions from the first officer who was in charge of the collier at the time.

The Empress was sunk in the St. Lawrence on May 29 with a loss of more than 1,000 lives.

The inquiry into the disaster was begun in Quebec on June 16 by a commission composed of Lord Mersey, formerly presiding justice of the British admiralty court, Sir Adolphe Routhier of Quebec and Chief Justice McLeod of New Brunswick. The commissioners were assisted in their work by Commander F. W. Caborne, of the British royal naval reserve, Prof. John Welsh of Newcastle, Eng., Captain Demers, of the Dominion wreck commission and Engineer Commander Howe of the Canadian naval service.

Commander Caborne and Prof. Welsh were nominated by the British board of trade. Lord Mersey also presided over the inquiry into the Titanic disaster.

The collier's third officer found responsible is Alfred Tuftenes. He was on the bridge when the crash occurred.

"We regret," says the finding, "to have to impute blame to any one in connection with this lamentable disaster and we should not do so if we felt that any reasonable alternative was left to us. We can, however, come to no other conclusion than that Mr. Tuftenes was wrong and negligent in altering his course in the fog as he was wrong and negligent in keeping the navigation of the vessel in his own hands and in failing to call the captain when he saw the fog coming on."

"It is not to be supposed that this disaster was in any way attributable to any special characteristics of the St. Lawrence waterway. It was a disaster which might have occurred in the Thames, in the Clyde, in the Mersey or elsewhere, in similar circumstances."

"Such is the conclusion at which we have arrived on the question as to who was to blame for the disaster. But the question of much greater public interest and importance remains to be considered, viz., why the ship sank so quickly and what steps, if any, can be taken to prevent the terrible consequences which so often follow such disasters."

"The main difference between the stories of the officers of the Empress and the Storstad respectively, is to be found in the description of the way in which the two vessels were approaching each other at the time the Empress of Ireland changed her course after having obtained an offing from Father Point."

"The witnesses from the Storstad say they were approaching so as to pass red to red, while those from the Empress of Ireland say they were approaching so as to pass green to green. The stories are irreconcilable and we have to determine which is the more probable. Times distances and bearings vary so much even in the evidence from witnesses from the same ship that it is impossible to rely on to base conclusions upon them. We have therefore thought it advisable to found our conclusions almost entirely upon the events spoken of by the witnesses and upon their probable sequence in order to arrive at a solution of the difficulty."

"After carefully weighing the evidence we have come to the conclusion that Mr. Tuftenes was mistaken if he supposed that there was any intention on the part of the Empress of Ireland to pass red to red, or that she, then by her lights manifested an intention to do so. But it appears to us to be a mistake which would have been of no consequence if both ships had subsequently kept their courses."

"Shortly after the ships came into position of green to green as claimed by Captain Kendall or red to red, as claimed by Mr. Tuftenes, the fog shut them out from each other, and it is while they were both enveloped in this fog, that the course of one or the other was changed, and the collision brought about. From the evidence adduced on behalf of both vessels, it is plain that before the fog, and when they last saw each other there was no risk of collision if each kept her course. Therefore the question as to who is to blame resolves itself into a simple issue, namely which of the ships changed her course during the fog.

"There is, in our opinion, no ground for saying that the course of the Empress of Ireland was ever changed in the sense that the wheel was wilfully moved, but as the hearing proceeded another explanation was propounded, namely, that the vessel changed her course, not by reason of any wilful alterations of her wheel, but in consequence of some uncontrollable movement which was accounted for at one time on the hypothesis that the steering gear was out of order and another by the theory that having regard to the fullness of the stern of the Empress of Ireland, the area of the rudder was insufficient. Evidence was called in support of this explanation."

"The principal witness on the point as to the steering gear was a man named Galway, one of the quartermasters of the Empress of Ireland. He said that he reported the jamming incident to Williams, the second officer on the bridge (who was drowned) and to pilot Bernier. He said he also mentioned the matter to Quartermaster Murphy who relieved him at midnight of the disaster. Pilot Bernier and Murphy were called and they denied that Galway had made any complaint whatever to them about the steering gear."

"Galway gave his evidence and made so unsatisfactory a witness that we cannot rely on his testimony. Some evidence was called, however, to confirm Galway. This was the evidence of three men and the pilot from another Norwegian collier called the Alden, at the time under charter to the Dominion Coal company, who were the charterers of the Storstad."

"These witnesses spoke of having passed the Empress of Ireland on her way down the river, about 9:20 on the evening of the 28th of May and they said she was swinging and steering badly, changing from red to green several times. The witnesses do not speak of any behavior of the vessel which would suggest jamming and it is to be believed that the allegation that the vessel sheered from side to side on this occasion, is entirely different from the allegation of Galway that the wheel jammed."

"On the whole question of the steering gear and rudder we are of opinion that the allegations as to their conditions are not well founded."

DELIVERY BOY

STRUCK BY PASSENGER TRAIN WHILE CROSSING EAST LOCUST STREET

Taken to Sanitarium, Where Exami- nation Develops That Injuries May Prove Fatal.

Southbound B. & O. passenger train No. 3 struck the delivery wagon of C. J. Doneff, grocer, of 49 South Third street, at the East Locust street crossing Saturday afternoon, and the driver of the wagon, Angel Dimitry, aged 16, of 74 Wilson street, sustained injuries which may prove fatal.

When the train was brought to a stop the Dimitry boy, unconscious and bleeding profusely from severe wounds in the head, was found lying between the rails some distance back from the locomotive and under one of the coaches.

Bazler & Bradley's ambulance took him to the Newark sanitarium and Dr. D. M. Smith attended him. He sustained two severe cuts deep into the scalp, a fracture of the lower jaw bone, and fracture of the left arm, with likelihood of internal injuries developing.

The delivery wagon was demolished but the horse escaped injury.

Witnesses of the accident say the boy drove directly in front of the oncoming train. The lad told his brother in the sanitarium that he did not hear the train approaching and after starting over the crossing he had no time to jump before the train was upon him.

Passengers were thrown into a high state of excitement in the belief that the youth had been killed. The train was delayed for some time before proceeding into the Newark station.

The boy's parents live in Macedonia. He and one brother living in Newark are the only members of their family in this country.

TWO BIGGEST SEA FIGHTERS NOW BUILDING

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, July 11.—Battleship No. 33, christened the "Arizona," by Secretary Daniels and her sister ship, the Pennsylvania when completed, will be two of the largest fighting craft ever built for the American navy. It was announced today. Each of these vessels will have nearly 4,000 tons greater displacement than the Oklahoma and the Nevada, both of which are still in the hands of the builders. With her sister ship, the Pennsylvania battleship No. 39 will carry two more 14-inch guns and one more 5-inch gun than any of the predecessors. The 14-inch guns will number 12, in four turrets, and they will be augmented by 21 5-inch guns. The two dreadnoughts will have a displacement of 31,000 tons each, a length of 600 feet, a beam of 87 feet and a draft of 28 feet, 10 inches.

CINCINNATI FINANCIER SUCCUMBS

Melville E. Ingalls Dies at Country Home at Hot Springs, Va.

PRESIDENT OF BIG FOUR

Railroad for a Number of Years—Was Also Ident- fied With the Vanderbilt Group of Railroads—Was Prominent in Queen City Politics.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Hot Springs, Va., July 11.—Melville E. Ingalls, financier and railroad man died here early today of heart failure.

Mr. Ingalls had been at his summer home here some time. Members of the family and friends say he had been gradually declining for months but his illness had been more marked during the last few weeks.

Three days ago he suffered from an ulcerated tooth and the shock of treatment was fatal. He became unconscious soon afterward and was only roused once or twice before he died.

One of his sons, Melville E. Ingalls, Jr., summoned hurriedly from New York, arrived at the death bed and was recognized by his father once during the last hours. Mrs. Ingalls, the widow, and a daughter Miss Gladys, also were at the bedside when death came. The body will be taken to Cincinnati tomorrow night on a special train and the funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Monday at the Unitarian church there. Burial will be in the family plot in Cincinnati. These pallbearers have been selected:

Charles P. Taft, John W. Warring, Harry Gess, Arthur Sperry, Frank Wiborg, Judson Harmon, E. Osborne, J. C. B. Scarborough, W. W. Brown, Joseph Wilby, William Worthington, and C. E. Holmes, all of Cincinnati, and George Simson of Los Angeles.

Beside the widow and daughter, Mr. Ingalls is survived by four sons, Melville E. Ingalls, Jr., and Fay Ingalls, of New York; George H. Ingalls of Chicago and Albert S. Ingalls of Cleveland.

No statement was made here today on behalf of the family as to the extent of the dead man's estate, further than that there is a will and that his death having been anticipated, his affairs had been set in order. It was said he withdrew from all active business connections some time ago and had disposed of many of his interests to those whom he wished to have them after his death.

Until two years ago he was chairman of the board of directors of the Big Four railroad, the transportation line with which his name was most closely identified although he was a powerful figure in what generally are known as the Vanderbilt group of railroads. Besides his home here, he has a home in Cincinnati and a new one in Washington.

Mr. Ingalls was in his seventy-second year. He was born at Harrison, Maine, in 1842, was reared on a farm and educated at Bowdoin and Harvard. He was graduated as a lawyer and began practice at Grey, Maine, but soon removed to Boston

American Aviator Leads In International Race, London to Paris and Back

(Associated Press Telegram)
London, July 11.—The aeroplane race from London to Paris and back today was won by Walter L. Brock, American aviator who recently carried off the aerial derby around London and the London-to-Manchester air race.

Brock, an American aviator, was the first to arrive on the French side of the English channel today in a flying race from London to Paris and back in which six aviators started early this morning.

Brock landed at Harlot near Bologne, and after taking a fifteen minute race continued his flight to Paris.

Lord John Carbery, an English aviator and Raoul Garros and Eugene Renaud, two Frenchmen, closely followed Brock, Renaud carrying with him a woman as a passenger.

Two other British entrants, Reginald H. Carr and Louis Noel, descended before reaching the coast. Brock arrived at the Hendon aerodrome just outside London at 48 minutes past 4 o'clock, having taken exactly three hours and a half to fly from the Buc aerodrome outside Paris. As his flying time on the outward journey from Hendon to Paris was three hours and thirty-three minutes the total duration of his and in 1867 was elected a member of the state senate.

His career as a railroad man and financier began in 1870 when he became president and a year later, receiver of the old Indianapolis, Cincinnati and Lafayette railroad. In the reorganizations he created the Cincinnati, Indianapolis, St. Louis and Chicago and later consolidated it with other railroads forming the Big Four system of which he was chairman. He was president of the Chesapeake and Ohio from 1883 to 1900; was Democratic candidate for mayor of Cincinnati in 1903 and president of the National Civic Federation in 1905. He was also interested in banking in Cincinnati.

SUCCESSFUL EDUCATORS' CONVENTION

(Associated Press Telegram)
St. Paul, July 11.—Practically all of the delegates to the fifty-second annual convention of the national education association which concluded a week's session here last night, left today for their homes.

Discussion at the informal farewell gatherings in hotel lobbies and railroad stations indicated the unanimity of opinion that the convention just closed was one of the most successful in point of actual accomplishment in the history of the organization.

An audience that filled the large auditorium where the general sessions had been held heard six of the country's foremost educators, all of them former presidents of the association, in a sweeping arrangement of educational systems and politics at the final meeting last night.

LAUNCHING OF NEVADA AT QUINCY

Big Battleship Will Be Placed in Commission Next January

SEC. DANIELS PRESENT

With Other Prominent Off- icials to Witness the Cer- emonies at Which Ten- Year-Old Girl Will Be the Sponsor—Vera Cruz Hero a Guest.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Quincy, Mass., July 11.—Turbine engines and oil fuel, will furnish the motive power of the 27,500 ton battleship Nevada, to be launched at the yards of the Fore River Shipbuilding company today. This latest addition to the United States navy is a sister ship of the Oklahoma, launched at Camden, N. J., last March. It is expected that she will be placed in commission next January. The Nevada has a length of over 600 feet, beam 95 feet and mean draft of 28 1/2 feet and her estimated speed is 20 1/2 knots an hour.

The arrangement of the main battery of ten 14-inch guns will be different from that on any other American battleship. Two turrets will carry two guns each and two others will have three guns each, an arrangement which it is thought will give a concentration of fire superior to that of the five two-gun turrets exemplified in the New York and the Texas.

The weight of armor is greater than that carried by any ship previously built for the navy.

The muzzle energy of the 14-inch gun to be carried on the Nevada is about 66,000 foot tons and its shell will weigh 1,400 pounds.

Secretary Daniels of the navy department, assistant secretary Roosevelt, Governor Tasker L. Odell of Nevada and Senator Pittman of that state were the principal guests at the launching. The sponsor chosen was Governor Odell's niece, Eleanor Ann Siebert, 10 years old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Siebert of Reno.

Another guest was Edward H. Glaburne of Quincy, who was given a medal honor a few days ago by Secretary Daniels for gallantry in fighting at Vera Cruz, Guisburn was wireless operator on the battleship Florida, was wounded while signaling to the fleet, from a hotel roof and it was found necessary to amputate one of his legs.

GRAND JURY TO GET EVIDENCE NEXT TUESDAY

(Associated Press Telegram)
Minneapolis, Minn., July 11.—Mrs. Florence Conklin Carman, locked up in the Nassau county jail here, charged with the murder of Mrs. Louise Bailey, was engaged today in going over the testimony given at the coroner's inquest, with her attorney, George M. Levy. She was much more cheerful, having completely recovered from the collapse she suffered the morning after her arrest. Mrs. Carman has aided him considerably, her attorney said in analyzing the testimony which caused her arrest.

District Attorney Smith said he planned a rigid private examination of Dr. Carman some time during the day regarding the story of the murder and the circumstances surrounding it as told by the physician at the inquest.

RESERVE BOARD MUST TAKE OATH BEFORE JULY 21

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, July 11.—July 21 is the last day upon which the three members of the federal reserve board already confirmed by the senate, may take their oath of office. The three members, Charles S. Hamlin, Adolph C. Miller and W. P. G. Harding, were notified on July 6 of their confirmation and the federal reserve act provides they must assume duties within 15 days of such notification.

It is quite generally believed that the board will be completely organized and actually at its work later than August 1, regardless of what action the Senate may take on the names of other appointees to the board.

Mt. Olive Encampment No. 12.
Mt. Olive encampment met in regular session, Thursday evening, July 2nd. The number of patriarchs present and the interest shown in transacting the business of the encampment indicates that Patriarchal Old Fellowship is on the increase. Re-member, Patriarchs that the regular meeting July 16th will be installation night. The installing officer says he will be on hand to hurry the business along so don't be afraid to come out even if the weather is a little warm, you will be repaid.

Newark Lodge No. 623.
Newark lodge is still having some very good meetings. Last Monday evening we had a good turn out and completed the business of the evening in a very satisfactory manner. The auditing committee have completed their work and the installation of officers will take place Monday evening, July 13th. The regular committee will also be ready to set a date Monday evening for inspecting the new outfit. Brother Pry will do his part for the comfort of the brothers during this warm weather. We are glad to welcome visitors.

ROLAND LODGE, K. OF P.
The following officers were installed last Tuesday evening for the ensuing term by Lodge Deputy J. F. Pfeiffer, Chancellor, Commander, Chas. F. Wagenheim; Vice Chancellor, A. L. Cooley; Private, J. F. Woodcock; Master at Arms, D. S. Gittings; Master of Work, J. S. Loughman; Outer Guard, Jno. I. Smith. The newly-elected Inner Guard was unable to be present. Chancellor Commander Wagenheim thanked the lodge for the honor conferred upon him and appointed the various committees for the term. The half year which has just closed has been one of the most successful in the history of Roland lodge, and the new term starts off under most auspicious conditions: a large membership, fine financial condition, but the best of all the spirit of Pythian friendship and sociability is at high ebb. The Tuesday evening by the new officers. Besides the installation last week reports were made by the trustees and the auditing committee for the six months just ending. Ice cream and cigars were passed around by the new entertainment committee.

FLINT WORKERS IN CONVENTION AT ROCHESTER

The thirty-eighth annual convention of the American Flint Glass Workers' union, closed its first week's session in Rochester, Pa., with good indications that President T. W. Rowe would reconsider his announced intention of withdrawing as a candidate for the national presidency, and may be re-elected.

James J. McKay, of Newark, who has headed the national auditing committee the past year, and who for several years has been actively identified with the work of the national organization, has been made chairman of the estimating committee for the convention sessions. Several other Newark glass workers are present in Rochester.

The convention usually lasts two weeks. Last year's convention, held in Newark, was one of the big events here.

Columbus, O., is making a strong pull for next year's convention, with the slogan: "God's country, and Columbus is its Capital City."

A Woolful Waste.
Traveling through Licking county these days, one sees hundreds of bushels of cherries drying up on the trees. Farmers say that the low price they can get for them, coupled with the wage they must pay to get them picked, they are not worth the money and time expended to get them into market. They can be had for the picking, if pickers will be careful and not destroy the trees. Tress, hundreds of them, loaded with nice well-ripened black and red cherries are literally dried up or drying up on the limbs. It seems a shame, scarce as such things are in hundreds of homes, that there can not be some equitable adjustment of affairs by which these poor, hungry children can have access to these delicacies they so much delight in when they can have them. I can not understand why, in the economy of civilization, there can not be some equitable adjustment in such matters. And I am no Socialist, either.

J. H. JONES WON A CLOSE MATCH IN TOURNAMENT

R. F. Collins and J. Howard Jones played their match in the preliminary flight of the July golf tournament Friday, and it required two extra holes to decide it, Jones winning the twentieth hole and match, 1 up.

This is the first time this season a match has gone this length before being decided.

HOW TO PREVENT MOSQUITOES.
Since it is supposed that the common house mosquito does not travel far, much can be done to prevent the annoyance of these pests by doing away with their breeding places. Screening will exclude mosquitoes, but the better practice is to avoid their development by looking after the drainage of small pools, and the disposition of tin cans or other articles that may retain sufficient water for them to breed in. If rain barrels, water tanks, cisterns, and other reservoirs are necessary, these should be screened or covered in such a manner as to prevent the entrance of mosquitoes as these insects develop only in water. Pools or small bodies of water which cannot be otherwise controlled and which are too small for the keeping of fishes may be treated with a film of kerosene to prevent any mosquito breeding.

FIRE DESTROYS A STORAGE SHED IN EDDY STREET

A shed used for storing garden utensils and other things not in use at all times about a home, in the rear of the residence of William H. Tooe, 335 Eddy street, caught fire Friday night and was destroyed, entailing a loss of probably $150. The cause of the fire is not known.

An alarm was sounded from Box 4, North Newark station, and the apparatus from there and the ladder truck from central station responded. The firemen soon put out the blaze, which for a time threatened a big barn standing not more than ten feet from the burning shed.

SPRAY FOR APPLE WORM.
Many fruit growers spray their trees carefully just after the blossoms fall in an attempt to control the apple worm. There is no question but that this is one of the most important sprays of the year in combating this worm. However, suggests R. B. Cruickshank, of the College of Agriculture, Ohio State university, it should be supplemented by at least one spray in the summer.

The codling moth which is the parent or adult of the apple worm has two generations in Ohio. The second brood makes its appearance about the first week in July. These worms do an immense amount of injury and should be fought. Arsenate of lead used at the rate of about three pounds to fifty gallons of water or bordeaux mixture is the material used for this pest. It will aid in stopping the ravages of the curculio and the various caterpillars which are bothersome in July. Where bitter rot or Arkansas blight is present, bordeaux mixture spray should be used, the two being applied at the same time.

TO STUDY DAIRY CONDITIONS.
Prof. W. L. Clevenger of the dairy department of Ohio State university will go to Europe this summer to study dairy conditions in several of the most important dairy regions. During his trip he will visit Denmark, Germany, Holland, France, Switzerland, Italy, England and the Channel Islands. Special attention will be given to a study of the production of cheese, butter and milk in these countries. The leading breeds of dairy cattle will also be observed in their native lands. Prof. Clevenger will be gone three months.

THE INTERIOR FINISH SHOULD BE THE LAST PROUD TOUCH OF THE BUILDER TO HIS PRODUCT.

After all it's INSIDE the house that we live. If there's anywhere we need quality, beauty, harmony of shades, pleasing environment, it's there. It should be the climax of all the other details of construction.

It is in full recognition of this fact that we recommend

SPARTAN ART WOOD STAINS.

They are the climax of our efforts in the wood finishing field. We've been making stains for many years. Today we are making the stains and fillers for the leading piano, talking machine and furniture manufacturers—most exacting in their demands for superlative quality.

We were once painters and finishers ourselves, so we started out knowing the needs of practical painters and wood finishers. Our goods appeal most to the most practical workmen.

Spartan Art Wood Stains will not raise the grain, therefore require no sanding. They will not fade.

AURORA MIXED PAINT—A superior paint for general use; made of pure linseed oil, lead, and the correct proportion of lustr ingredients to give it extreme durability. Ask any painter who knows.

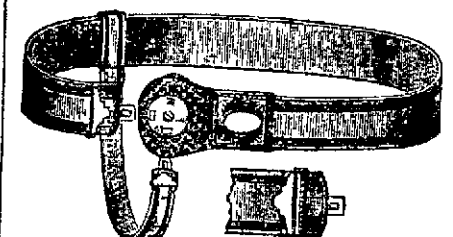

SPARTANA—Our well known floor finish, made for popular use, and formerly called Spartan Stain. Ideal for refinishing floors, old furniture, and any article that has grown scuffed from usage.

SUIT ON LOSS OF TITANIC MAY GO TO ENGLAND

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
New York, July 11.—In the federal court yesterday Judge Hand announced a ruling which permits claimants to withdraw claims growing out of the loss of the steamship Titanic from admiralty litigation here and prosecute damage suits in English courts. Under the English law, known as Lord Campbell's Liability act, claimants may recover $3,000,000 for this account of salvage, freight and passage money, while the American statute limits recovery to $97,000.

Action was brought on claims aggregating $18,000,000. Judge Hand's order permits the claimants to proceed in English courts without prejudice to their rights of further action in this country.

Mutual Responsibility in a Great Work!

No really great work can be done without keen attention to details and a steadfastness of purpose.

Every community element must be harmonized in bringing a great work to a high measure of success, if we would win our cause, and maintain the enterprise which gives scope for the best aims of life.

There are those who help cheerfully; and others who yield reluctantly to the command "go work in my vineyard."

But the help of each is so necessary and the needs of the work so pressing, that all must work together in a spirit of earnest desire to do the best possible in accomplishing the end sought.

The church of today is the greatest "going concern" in the world; it is doing its share—more than its share—for the present good of the world, and is constantly accomplishing unexpected things.

The church is a big organization in which any enthusiastic volunteer is welcomed; any conscientious worker is desired.

Today's efforts secure tomorrow's victories, and the ever-widening responsibilities of the church make it necessary to take advantage of every opportunity for service.

You may be the one who can help most at a given point.

"FOR WHEN FOR THE TIME YE OUGHT TO BE TEACHERS, YE HAVE NEED THAT ONE OUGHT TO TEACH YOU AGAIN WHICH BE THE FIRST PRINCIPLES OF ORACLES OF GOD"

THE TEACHER AND LEADER. MEAT CAUSE OF KIDNEY TROUBLE

By Ewing Herbert, Editor of the Milwaukee World.

EWING HERBERT.

EVERY newspaper is responsible to those who support it. So there is no such thing as an irresponsible press. There is at times a mistake and selfishness, but through the years the liberal press is the melting pot of the nation's opinion, and in a government like ours the supreme power is public opinion. Thomas Jefferson said that he would prefer newspapers without government to government without newspapers. The editor shapes the mind of the reader. Sometimes the editor knows the way he leads; sometimes he doesn't. If the editor is wrong his power is limited, his energy wasted. Yet much that he has printed has cleared the way by revealing the right as far as it can be seen, for the publicity given is the safeguard of free thought. The editor tells what he thinks he knows, and being human, he may tell more than he knows, yet his opportunity for public service is boundless.

The newspaper can be the teacher, the leader of the people. The preacher in his pulpit can speak to a few hundred people each Sabbath day, tell them the gospel truth. The editor can speak to thousands of people each day that which he believes is the truth, but of course it isn't always the gospel truth, being subject to the change and correction of unfolding and development. The editor can scatter the seed which springs up on the hillside and by the stream. He can be a man meeker and a man milder. He can sow seeds of discord and undermine his usefulness.

He can more wisely keep in mind his own failings and have charity for the failings of others. He can have faith in his fellow men and his country—the faith that moves mountains of doubt. He can hear the "call of human hopes and fears," the Macedonian cry to Paul. He can love his neighbors. He can be a fighter for good report. So long as the work are matched against the strong he can be the best defender of the oppressed. He can build up what needs building up and tear down that which should fall.

When the newspapers of our country denounce injustice, justice rules again. A line or two suggest action, and lo, readers are stirred to deeds. The inconsiderate few, called to account, get in step. The newspaper can scorn badness, but it needs the support of goodness—old fashioned goodness, sympathy and companionship—to take part in the affairs of highway and byway. Neglected children, the idle and aimless, the toiling men and women, the weak and distressed, the wearers of pearls, fine linen and purple, all need help. And over all there should be more silence as to defect and more notice of merit. The gospel of a good newspaper should be the gospel of the biggest and greatest human life.

VIRGINIA BANKS HIGHEST IN THE TYPHOID REPORT

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, July 11.—Virginia had a more unfavorable typhoid fever report than any other state in 1913, according to a statement today by the public health service giving the statistics reported to that service by state health officers. In Virginia there were 5,968 cases of typhoid reported, which is 303 cases to every 1,000 population, the highest ratio shown. South Dakota showed the best record with only 143 cases, or 222 cases to every 1,000 inhabitants.

MEAT CAUSE OF KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take a glass of Salts if your Back hurts or Bladder bothers—Meat forms uric acid.

If you must have your meat every day, eat it, but flush your kidneys with salts occasionally, says a noted authority who tells us that meat forms uric acid which almost paralyzes the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. Then you suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids, to cleanse the kidneys and flush off the body's urinous waste, get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink. You're Bilious and Costive! Sick headache, Bad Breath, Sour Stomach, Furred Tongue and Indigestion, Mean Liver and Bowels clogged. Clean up tonight. Get a 25c bottle of Dr. King's New Life Pills today and empty the stomach and bowels of fermenting, gassy foods and waste. A full bowel movement gives a satisfied, thankful feeling—makes you feel fine. Effective, yet mild. Don't gripe. 25c. at your Bucklen's Arnica Salve for Burns.

FEW FOLKS HAVE GRAY HAIR NOW

Well-known local druggist says everybody is using old-time recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old-time recipe.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture by asking at any drug store for a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. Besides it takes the dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance. —instead of coffee.

Try the change for a couple of weeks and observe two noticeable things:

You won't miss the old beverage, for Postum tastes much like rare old Java.

Further, there's the brisk, alert feeling—free from the logyness of a lazy liver and disturbed digestion.

Thousands of people have made the change and know

"There's a Reason"

Postum comes in two forms: Regular Postum—must be well boiled. 15c and 25c packages.

Instant Postum—needs no boiling. A teaspoonful of the soluble powder stirred in a cup of hot water makes a delightful beverage instantly. Add cream and sugar to taste. 30c and 50c tins.

The cost per cup of both kinds is about the same.

Democratic Sparks.

"I expect Congress to remain in session until the trust bills have been put through."—Senator John W. Kern of Indiana, Democratic leader of the Senate.

"We are now taking up what should have been taken up twenty years ago. Why should it take us a month to discuss it, therefore?"—Senator Francis G. Newlands of Nevada, opening debate in the Senate on the trust bills.

"Mr. Chairman, waiting for a moment the question of equal rights under the Constitution, I ask the gentleman if it is not good, well-settled Democratic doctrine that there shall be equal rights to all and special privileges to none?" asked Representative Moore of Pennsylvania, Republican in the House the other day, opposing the exemption of labor organizations from the anti-trust laws.

"Yes," answered Representative Bartlett of Georgia, Democrat, "that is good Democratic doctrine, which my friend and his party have never followed and never invoked, except in the interest of great corporations that are wanting to oppress and grind down the people. You never invoked that in the interest of the laboring man or the farmer. It is only when we undertake to prevent the prosecution of men for that which is no crime, when great combinations of wealth and power have used that prosecution as a means of oppression that you cry 'Constitution!'"

"The trades commission bill and the anti-trust program of this administration are proof not only of necessity of this legislation, but their enthusiastic reception upon the part of business and professional men throughout the entire country, as well as their frank endorsement by farm and labor organizations, are ample proof that there is practically a unanimous demand for legislation to Newark's splendid new hospital at the corner of Indiana and Buena Vista streets will soon be finished but unfortunately, it is not paid for in full. The trustees have endeavored to use every dollar to good advantage and have expended time and effort to produce good results, but they are disappointed in the number of unpaid subscriptions. Unless these subscriptions are paid promptly it will be necessary for the board to borrow money in order to complete the structure.

CONAN DOYLE.

We ought to give ovation to Arthur Conan Doyle, who's spending his vacation on Freedom's sacred soil; beneath the starry banner, he's taking notes, they say, and in his sprightly manner he'll write us up some day. At home he has been knighted, with Britain's chosen few, and we should be delighted to do him honor, too. To every farthest distance extends his well-earned fame, for he has made existence a better, brighter game. How every reader glories in good old Sherlock Holmes, in all Sir Arthur's stories, his essays and his poems! In letters he's the leader; romancer, bard and sage, who never bored a reader, or wrote a dreary page! They caught old Homer nodding, in olden times, it seems; they had to do some nodding to rouse him from his dreams; and almost every author has days when he can't write much better than a Goth or a Vandal who is tight, but Doyle has never written a line devoid of grace, or sent me off a-hittin' the flagons for a brace! We don't appreciate him or rightly value his worth; we haven't learned to rate him with giants of the earth, but when he has been planted for fifty years, by jing, posterity, enchanted, will say he was a king.

By the Way

In every small community there is gossip among the women directed at the manner in which some widower neglects his wife's grave.

If girls could see the men they are going to marry before breakfast, there would be fewer weddings.

The loving of an engaged couple is done in private. The loving of a married couple is done in plain sight for the benefit of the public.

suit for divorce, "but I will say this for him—he was one of monotonous deadliest foes."

The shortest parade is the one given by a man who comes home empty-handed from a fishing trip.

Complaint has been made that Americans can't be induced to enlist in the army. Americans often are smarter than they look.

Eph Wiley and Buck Kilby were discussing a public man who had recently passed from view. "What did he ever do, I ask, what did he ever do?" snorted Buck, who was conducting the case for the prosecution. "Well," Eph replied, "he lived in Kansas forty years without once making a fool of himself, and that is a remarkable feat."

Paragraphs

Comfortable Surplus.
Those patriotic standpatters who were lately so fearful that the Wilson Government would have to borrow money to meet current expenses will of course be pleased to note that the Treasury comes out of the fiscal year with a very comfortable surplus, even when the income tax has been working little more than half-time.—New York World.

People Pay the Cost.

Safety First.
The headlines continue daily their tale of inquiry and death on the public thoroughfares and in manufacturing and industrial plants. Carelessness in one form or another is responsible for practically all of the accidents of the last few days, and of most accidents throughout the year. In one instance it will be the carelessness of the driver; in another, the carelessness of the victim, but carelessness it will be. In these days of rapid transit, of high speed and wonderful mechanical invention, the need for care and caution is a hundredfold greater than even 10 years ago. The slogan of "safety first" is a wise one.—Buffalo Times.

Bonds Exempt.
And to make it all the harder for Andrew Carnegie to avoid the disgrace of dying rich in New York law is such that Uncle Andy doesn't have to pay a cent of taxes on his millions of dollars of steel trust bonds.—Mansfield News.

A day or two ago a knock was heard at the front door of the Franklin National bank just before the regular time for starting the day's business. One of the bookkeepers responded to the call to find two little boys seeking admission.

"Say, mister," said the larger lad, "do you want a couple of boys to count pennies? A man over there told us you did." And there was disappointment in both faces when the boys were told that the bank's clerical force was able to do all of the cash counting.

A little Greenville girl was sent to purchase a box of stove polish. Her father had an account at the store but the proprietor wished to assure himself of her identity so he inquired, "Is this for Professor Blank?" "No, sir," she replied, "it's for the stove."

Farmer Near Frazeyburg Sculptures Statues Out Of Limestone in Quarry

ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

GENERAL McPHERSON.

D. Brice Baughman who lives on his farm a mile north of Black Run, and three miles west of Frazeyburg, just across the eastern Licking county line in Muskingum, is a natural born sculptor. His work is attracting much attention, and favorable verdicts from those who have seen it, for the untutored excellence of conception and design, as well as the methods he pursues in accomplishing his purpose.

He sculpts statues of heroic size out of white sand stone, of which there is a quarry on the Baughman farm, and are to be seen in what he calls Memorial Park, a part of his estate dedicated to these works of true genius.

He has made excellent statues of our martyred presidents, Lincoln and McKinley, and is now at work on a base and with mallet and chisel carve the features of the model out of the face of a huge, pristine boulder, and the statue is then painted white.

The statues are from 16 to 18 feet high, and weigh about two and one-half tons. Numerous other works on the rocky ledges are testimonials to Mr. Baughman's genius, as he is unschooled in the sculptor's art and has acquired what skill he possesses by working at spare moments since boyhood.

A statue of General McPherson has been made from a picture loaned Mr. Baughman by the old soldiers who have manifested a great interest in his work. The G. A. R. veterans expect to dedicate the park at some date soon to be announced, by raising a flag and mounting some old United States cannon secured through the efforts of Congressman George White, and other appropriate exercises. The cannons are expected to arrive this month.

COMMISSIONERS TO RESIDE WITH PRISON INMATES

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
New York, July 11.—Commissioner of Corrections Katherine B. Davis, today decided that she would live among the prisoners on Blackwell's Island, until order was restored. She accordingly moved her office temporarily to the island, where she said she would remain while there was any possibility of a repetition of the recent outbreaks.

After a conference with Warden Hayes, the commissioner made a tour around the prison and arranged to send 700 of the prisoners back to work. The commissioner's plan is to weed out the riotous prisoners and the ringleaders from the rest and to turn as many as possible to their position from prison duty.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Portland, Ore., July 11.—Mrs. Eloise Nelms Dennis, who disappeared after writing her mother in Atlanta, Ga., that she had killed her sister and intended to kill her brother, talked about such a plan with Victor E. Innes, former assistant United States district attorney of Nevada, as long as a year and a half ago, Innes said, here today.

He asserted that she told him on one occasion she had tried to shoot herself, but when the revolver missed fire three times, "she rather lost her nerve."

Innes was her counsel in a successful suit for divorce which she brought in Reno, eighteen months ago. He is now a resident of this city.

BAD OPERATION AVOIDED

By Timely Use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. Sowers' Own Statement.
Hodgdon, Maine.—"I feel it a duty I owe to all suffering women to tell what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me. One year ago I found myself a terrible sufferer. I had pains in both sides and such a soreness I could scarcely straighten up at times. My back ached, I had no appetite and was so nervous I could not sleep, then I would be so tired mornings that I could scarcely get around. It seemed almost impossible to move or do a bit of work and I thought I never would be any better until I submitted to an operation. I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and soon felt like a new woman. I had no pains, slept well, had good appetite and could do almost all my own work for a family of four. I shall always feel that I owe my good health to your medicine."—Mrs. HAYWARD SOWERS, Hodgdon, Maine.

If you are ill do not drag along until an operation is necessary, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

PONY PARADE ADVERTISING CHAUTAUQUA

Nobody would have ever thought that there were so many ponies in Newark had they not seen the pony parade Saturday morning advertising the Chautauqua which is to be given under the auspices of the Federation of Women's clubs, starting next Thursday. There were 24 ponies in the parade and these cute little animals were the source of much attention on the streets and were probably one of the best advertisements that the Federation of Women's clubs could have obtained. The parade consisted of 17 carts, four equestrians and several pony cols which were lead.

The "cavalcade" started from the Y. M. C. A. at 9:30 and went around the square and down East Main street to the Pennsylvania railroad crossing and back around the square and up West Main street and through several streets of the city.

The carts and ponies were decorated with banners advertising the Chautauqua, and the children wore caps telling of the coming event.

CHAUTAUQUA TICKETS.
Chautauqua tickets and programs, for the Newark Chautauqua may be secured at Ullman's Drug Store at Granville.

One o' th' mysteries o' life is how triflin' husbands manage t' keep on such good terms with well off wives. Th' worst example o' monopoly is th' only hotel in town.

How to Win.
This is an age of specialization, my boy, and the only men who succeed in a big way are those who pick out some particular line of work and live with it until they get to know more about it than most other fellows. Concentration, consistent and persistent effort in one direction is the surest road to success. You'll never win in a big way—except accidentally—if you scatter your energies. The best steam engine in the world would race itself to ruin without its governor. Keep your mind on your job, specialize in your particular business and try to know as much about it as the man who created it, and, barring misfortune, you'll make more out of that knowledge than you will out of any chance success outside of your business.—Maurice Switzer in Leslie's.

Built From the Coliseum.
Many of the important palaces of Rome are made from stone taken from the ruins of the Coliseum, which, in spite of the ravages of two earth quakes, remained intact until the eighth century. The Barberini, Farnese, and Cancellaria are all built from the walls of this edifice, but the spoliation is not so unworthy when we realize the stone had fallen from repeated earthquakes, thus suggesting its transportation.

SUMMER VACATIONS.
Before starting on your outing remember to order the Advocate to follow you. No matter how long you are to be gone, no matter how frequently you change your address, the Advocate will go where you go, if you only leave word. No extra charge. Before you start, telephone to this office. That's all that is necessary.

BREATHE FREELY! OPEN NOSTRILS AND STUFFED HEAD---END CATARRH

Instant Relief When Nose and Head are Clogged from a Cold. Stops Nasty Catarrhal Discharges. Dull Headache Vanishes.

Try "Ely's Cream Balm."

Get a small bottle anyway, just to try it—Apply a little in the nostrils and instantly your clogged nose and stopped-up air passages of the head will open; you will breathe freely; dullness and headache disappear. By morning the catarrh, cold-in-head or catarrhal sore throat will be gone.

End such misery now! Get the small bottle of "Ely's Cream Balm" at any drug store. This sweet, fragrant balm dissolves by the heat of the nostrils; penetrates and heals the inflamed, swollen membrane which lines the nose, head and throat; clears the air passages; stops nasty discharges and a feeling of cleansing, soothing relief comes immediately.

Don't lay awake to-night struggling for breath, with head stuffed; nostrils closed, hawking and blowing. Catarrh or a cold, with its running nose, foul mucous dropping into the throat, and raw dryness, distressing but truly needless.

Put your faith—just once—in "Ely's Cream Balm" and your cold or catarrh will surely disappear. F. D. Hall, 10 North Side Square, Newark, Ohio.

What Does Money Mean To You?

A little group of women were discussing the good fortune of a mutual acquaintance who had unexpectedly inherited quite a bit of money.

"I wonder what she will do with it?" mused one. "It wouldn't take me long to know what to do with it," exclaimed a member of the group.

And then they fell to discussing what money meant to them.

"To be perfectly honest," laughed one, "it means to me clothes and big dinners. I certainly do love elegant clothes and I love to give an elaborate dinner or go to a fashionable hotel or restaurant and have a 'spread.'"

"I think it would mean to me what I could see," mused another. "I am sure if I had sufficient money to afford to travel, there would not be many nooks and corners of this world I wouldn't visit."

"I think I would want to travel, too," joined a third. "But that wouldn't be all. Nor would I want to travel everywhere. I would pick out the high places, so to speak—Paris, London, Rome, the Alps. Then I would want the best of everything—music, plays, art. I think I should just go in for the best the world had to offer."

"You don't want much," she replied. "If I couldn't afford to travel a lot, I'd just take the cream. If I couldn't enjoy all the music that came along, I'd choose the one best thing. Money to me would stand for the best, even if I had to take this best in limited quantities. I am so tired of cheap things and second best and taking what I don't like because it's all I can afford."

"You are not the only one who has to do that," chorused the others. "I think money to me would stand for manicuring and shampooing and Turkish baths and things of that sort," joined in a member of the group. "I just love to go to a beauty place and get all fixed up and come out feeling as fresh and dainty as a rose. And I never feel I can afford to do it. Or if sometimes I do get wildly extravagant and indulge, I feel like a culprit. Tom works so hard I can't really enjoy flinging money away in that fashion. But I think if I had it to fling as I please, a lot of it would go that way."

"I suppose you'll think I'm crazy," said one who had not spoken yet, "but to me, the possession of money would mean helping foreign missions. Ever since I travelled in the Orient and saw the conditions of the women and children there, I have just ached to help them."

It's rather interesting to find what money stands for with different people, isn't it?

What does it mean to you? Frankly, honestly? If you'll probe to the bottom of the query, maybe you'll be rather surprised to find just what your real secret desires are.

THE RURAL CARRIER,
HIS OBLIGATIONS AND HIS DUTIES

To be a rural route carrier, since the service was first established and up to this time different methods have been in vogue, in regards to entering the service as carrier and which at present is by competitive examination through the civil service, each applicant must obligate himself to the Postoffice department to abide strictly to the regulations, furnish the necessary bond, provide his own equipment, which means a conveyance suitable to carry and protect the mail in all kinds of weather and which means quite an outlay of money preparatory to the entering upon of his duties.

His duties as one of a great army of 43,000 carriers is to report at the postoffice each morning at a specified time to "route" his mail preparatory to making his daily trip, regardless of weather conditions; deliver and collect mail; sell to patrons newspaper wrappers, postcards, stamped envelopes; take money orders, register mail and parcel post, the latest and largest addition to the carriers' duties, which he is justly proud of.

His conveyance may consist of a horse-drawn vehicle, automobile motorcycle or in some localities the most convenient method of travel, is horseback. His daily trip takes him over all parts of the country, and among many classes of people, who are greatly interested in his coming each day.

The postoffice department requests of the patron to erect in front of his home a receptacle of regulation order, upon a neat strong post, convenient for the carrier to drive up to and have both box and post painted white with the name of the patron neatly painted in black. Also to supply himself with the necessary postage stamp and have all mail properly stamped and addressed for the carrier so as to enable him to proceed on his way as each and every one is cagerly waiting to see what news the rural postman brings each day.

On his return to the postoffice he turns in his collection of mail, procures money orders, replenishes his stock of supplies for the next trip, makes out his daily trip report, sees that all equipment entrusted to him is in its proper place. He then has finished for the day and returns to his home. The number of hours on duty depend largely on conditions of the weather and distance compelled to travel and condition of roads.

From the beginning of his duties to the finish each day the rural mail carrier resembles a traveling postoffice on wheels.

Theatres

Auditorium Tonight.

Two big features at the Auditorium tonight. "King Charles II," England Merry Monarch, an elaborate, spectacular and intensely interesting photo-play of Cromwellian days. This wonderful film production is in four acts.

Miss Gene Gauntier in "She, of the Wolf's Breed," a gripping story of the Alaskan gold fields. An unique picture, portraying the hardships of a good woman's trials and tribulations in frozen Alaska as measured by muscle, brawn and nerve, and where serenity and fearlessness are necessary for a woman to withstand the life among the gold crazed.

Miss Gene Gauntier is your favorite and nearly everyone's favorite and in this wonderful photo production of life in the frozen North she appears to an advantage.

At the Auditorium theater Sunday will be shown two big features
"The Path of Sorrow," a gripping story of circumstantial evidence and belated justice. This photo-play is a tense drama of society and the underworld.

"The Bridge that Failed" is a powerful photo-play in three acts.
All the scenes are wonderfully portrayed and every scene is a masterpiece. The story is a powerful, thrilling and sensational story and one that will surely please all.

A hat should always be worn with a purple wig—as purple fades very quickly if exposed to the sun. Also when beauty begins to fade, keep in the dark as much as possible.

FASHIONS.

BECAUSE A GIRL WEARS A DARING BATHING SUIT IS NO SIGN THAT SHE WILL DARE TO GO INTO THE WATER IN IT, OR DARE TO HAVE HER HUSBAND SEE HER WEARING IT. WIGS OF PAST COLORS ONLY SHOULD BE WORN BY BATHING GIRLS WHO MAKE A PRACTICE OF GOING INTO THE WATER.

WHY NOT?

First Flight Sensations.

The sensations when you first shoot up rapidly in the air are distressful to the novice, says Captain C. Mellor in the Airman. This is how Captain Mellor felt, sitting behind the pilot in a biplane:

"The rush and press of air are terrific. My chest seems to be getting stored in and my ribs feel inclined to give way. I have difficulty in exhaling. The smallest opening of the nasal valve seems to give too much air. My blood rapidly becomes superoxygenated, and I experience a feeling of exhilaration. I should like to shout or at least say 'Ha, ha!' but the pressure of the wind is too great for me to say anything, and I feel it best to keep my mouth shut."

It was much the same when taking a trial flight in a monoplane from the Bleriot school. At the end of the first circuit he "felt like blowing up."

Odd Death Certificates.

Certificates of death are not documents where one usually seeks for humor, but there is frequently to be found in them much of the unconscious variety. Here, for instance, is now the cause of death is stated in the case of a laborer:

"Died from injuries received through a bull accidentally kneeling on his chest."

The consideration shown for the feelings of the bull is a fine touch and suggests grave questions on the moral responsibility of the lower animals.

Again, a man is stated to have "died from the effects of injuries received after being run over by a railway train in motion owing to a misunderstanding between deceased and an engine driver." This description of a rather ordinary railway casualty is excellent—London Express.

Even in summer a sunny disposition isn't necessary accompanied by a hot temper.

MADE A NEW MAN OF FORMER DRINK VICTIM

Tribute to the Neal Treatment from a Down-State Buckeye Who Was Quickly Restored to Self-Mastery.

"The Neal Treatment does just what you claim for it," writes an Ohioan from his down-state home. "It certainly has done wonders for me and I am sure it can do the same service for others. I came out of the Neal Institute feeling like a new man and after three months time I can say that I have no desire for alcoholic drink. I am so much improved in every way that my friends congratulate me whenever I meet them. I certainly hope many others will benefit by your Treatment.

Your own investigation is urgently requested. The Neal Treatment is a physician's purely harmless vegetable remedy, taken internally with no dangerous hypodermic injections. There is no publicity.

MAZDA FIRE LOSS IS $700; OPEN TONIGHT

Joe Bader, manager of the Mazda moving picture theater at which place the fire of Tuesday night occurred, came to Newark about 5 o'clock Friday afternoon, in response to a telegram sent in care of the General Film company at Cincinnati, telling him of his loss.

Mr. Bader looked over the ground and found that his loss will be about $700, confined exclusively to the fire proof operators' booth upon which he had no insurance whatever as companies will not take risks involving films and moving picture machines and their appurtenances. Upon the fixtures in the theater, piano, decorations, seats, etc., he carried an insurance of $2,000 but in this place he suffered practically no loss.

Mr. Bader began at once the work of cleaning out the destroyed contents of the booth, putting it in shape, and will open Saturday night with a show as usual.

While of course regretting his loss it was not to be compared to his pleasure that not a person was injured by fire or panic, and in this he was of a like opinion with his sister, Mrs. Kate Schlegel, who is a partner in the Mazda ownership who said:

"We can buy new machines and films, but could never compensate for loss of life or injury. We are very thankful that everything came out as it did."

The absolute safety of the theater, proper from fire arising in the operator's booth, when it is securely fireproofed as the one at the Mazda, was satisfactorily demonstrated Thursday by the fact that not one foot of the three reels of blazing films got out of the booth into the theater. People generally realized this fact at the time of the fire and did not become hysterical and panic stricken, with the result that they easily and safely got out of the many handy exits without death or injury.

The picture shows of Newark are all equipped against fire by these fire proof booths, according to law and the Mazda fire demonstrated that there is no danger, if the audience just remember this fact accordingly in case of accident.

Where and how to buy Rubber Goods is very important and those who do not already know will be glad to learn what a splendid line is carried at the City Drug Store. Rubber goods must be reliable and that is the kind handled here. Everything in rubber that can be needed for the household is shown at the City Drug Store.

A big special that is attracting much attention is a combination Water Bottle and Syringe at $1.75. These are a splendid value at the regular price of $2.50 and every one is guaranteed for one year. See the window display of this big special. Drop in and look over the big line of Rubber Goods, and see the many new and convenient devices. The bathing caps of every kind and price are very popular here.

Three registered pharmacists are in constant attendance and your prescriptions will always receive prompt and accurate attention. Bring your next one to Bricker's City Drug Store—"THE BEST IN NEWARK." 11-11

Elephant and Tiger Enmity.

One of the most interesting employment of the elephant is in hunting tigers. From the lofty back of his elephant, at a height which, increased by the howdah, may be twelve or fourteen feet above the ground, the hunter can take his aim at a tiger with a coolness that he would not possess if facing the animal on terra firma. If, as sometimes occurs, the tiger makes a leap for the elephant he seldom succeeds in attaining the man in the howdah, although the driver in his exposed position on the elephant's neck, is in great danger.

There seems to be a natural enmity between elephants and tigers, although an elephant will not attack a tiger unless cornered or compelled to do so by the tiger's own fault. But then a good fighting elephant will if he can once get his tusks to bear on his enemy gore him to death or literally crush him by kneeling on him. It is said that the mere presence of a dead tiger will drive some elephants to fury.—Spokane Spokesman-Review.

Old Time Gas Charges.

The price of gas in the early part of the last century is shown by a schedule of charges issued by the Liverpool Gaslight company in the year 1817. Instead of so much per cubic foot being levied, each individual burner was charged for, and the price varied according to the hour at which the light was to be extinguished. Thus for using one No. 1 Argand burner up till 3 p. m. $3 per annum had to be paid. For the right to keep it alight until 9 1/2 12s. was the figure, while those roistering blades who sat up till 10, 11 or 12 had to disburse $4 10s., $5 12s. and $6 8s. respectively. Imagine the gas bill at a house where ten or twelve burners are flaring away until the small hours if such a method of taxation were in force nowadays!—Liverpool Post.

TRAVELERS CLUB HAS DELIGHTFUL ENTERTAINMENT

Given on the Lawn of the Cook Home at Granville—News of the Thriving College Town.

Granville, July 11.—Mrs. Christine Cook and her daughter, Miss Altie, threw open their charming home at the corner of Mulberry and College streets, Friday afternoon, July 10, for the Travelers' club mid-summer entertainment. The beautiful lawn south of the house was the scene of the festivities and it seems to be the consensus of opinion that no more delightful function has ever been given by that enterprising organization. About sixty ladies partook of the beautiful luncheon served under the trees, and the climax of the afternoon's enjoyment was reached in the after-dinner stories which were related under the clever guidance of the president, Mrs. W. C. Clemons. Wit and humor characterized these informal talks, in which all took part. The credit for the perfection of detail which resulted in this most enjoyable party is due to the club's social committee, of which only two members remain in town Mrs. L. E. Davis, chairman, and Mrs. S. E. Morrow, assisted by the president, Mrs. W. C. Clemons. The guests of the club were: Mrs. N. H. Grove and Miss Shepherd of Cincinnati; Miss Franklin, Chillicothe; Miss Robb, Minneapolis; Mrs. E. F. Appy, Bay City, Mich.; Mrs. B. J. Jones, Mrs. Meyers, and Miss Anna Lyon, Granville.

Mrs. J. S. Jones left yesterday for Chicago to join her husband who went there last week on important business. Her stay in the Windy City is indefinite as she probably will remain and return with Mr. Jones in the touring car. Dr. and Mrs. L. E. Davis are entertaining Dr. and Mrs. N. H. Grove and Miss Shepherd of Cincinnati, who motored to Granville last week in their touring car.

Mrs. Christine Cook leaves today for Wisconsin, where she will spend some time visiting friends in various places.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Ullman, who went to Louisville Tuesday to attend the funeral of a relative, have arrived home.

The Baptist Young People's Union will hold their Sunday evening service on Shepherdson College campus tomorrow evening at 5:45.

Union services of all the churches will be held tomorrow evening in the Methodist church. Sermon by Rev. A. J. Hawk on the topic "God's Witness."

The Land of Long Words.

Humboldt once said that nothing in Mexico strikes Europeans more forcibly than the excessive length of the words. This length, moreover, does not always depend on their being compounded, as in the Greek, the German or the Sanskrit. Thus the Mexican word for that simple thing, a kiss, is tetennamiquiliztli.

But that is nothing, says Mr. Charles W. Dornville-Fife in his book on Guatemala, to what the Central American can do. His best efforts eclipse even Shakespeare's often quoted "honorificabilitudinitatibus." In "Love's Labour's Lost" for if you wish to call the boy who carries newspapers, you have but to murmur "amatlacuillitquitlacahuille," and he may possibly come.

Where One May Dig to China.

Freeland, Pa., is exactly what its name indicates—free land. It is land which when purchased becomes the absolute property of the buyer, and his title is not subject to mining royalties, ground rent or any other reservation. In this respect it differs very much from the land surrounding the town on all sides and owned by the coal mining corporations, which land when purchasable at all is restricted to the surface rights only. In 1868 August Donop, foreseeing the need of a town site that would be free from the control of the mining corporations, bought several hundred acres of land. He laid out the town, and in selling the lots he emphasized the fact that it was "free land" and the owner's rights extended as deeply into the earth as he might care to prosecute. By common consent the town's first name was Freeland, but this was ordered changed by the postoffice department to avoid confusion with the older town of Freeland, N. J. In deference to local sentiment the name Freeland was substituted.—Ladies' Home Journal.

THE MAN WHO PLAYS THE GAME OF LIFE

Without life's insurance is betting his wife and children that he will live to make a fortune for them.

Why not bet on a "sure thing" in which either you or your family is bound to win? We are authorized to place bets for the Midland with the odds entirely in your favor and which in the end you are sure to "beat it."

For instance, the Midland will wager $2000 to your $60.00 (owing to your age) that you will not die within a year: if you live and lose, your money is not lost, but the Midland will save it for you. The Midland will make you the same wager next year and for 20 years, and if you lose each year for twenty years the Midland will give you back all the money you have lost. Of course, if you should die you win the $2,000. So far as you are concerned you can always say it is a game of "heads I win and tails you lose."
